SWEET BOCAS TEAM

Canadian born and raised in Africa, Annick Belanger is an unassuming host and ex restaurateur who had a vision to create a place for limitless opportunities to explore, discover, create, and give back.

She thrives on creating environments where people feel good, authentic and are able to exchange thoughts and ideas with others.

That is why after visiting Bocas del Toro and exploring the island where Sweet Bocas is now located, she went on a quest to make her vision a reality.
